

Sunday 16th April 2023 – Divine Mercy – 2nd Sunday of Easter – Year A

Entrance Antiphon

1 Peter 2:2

Like newborn infants, you must long for the pure, spiritual milk,
that in him you may grow to salvation, alleluia.

First Reading

Acts 2:42-47

The faithful all lived together and owned everything in common.'

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 117(118):2-4,13-15,22-24

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end.

Let the sons of Israel say:

'His love has no end.'

Let the sons of Aaron say:

'His love has no end.'

Let those who fear the Lord say:

'His love has no end.'

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,

I was thrust down, thrust down and falling,

but the Lord was my helper.

The Lord is my strength and my song;

he was my saviour.

There are shouts of joy and victory in the tents of the just.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.

This is the work of the Lord,

a marvel in our eyes.

This day was made by the Lord;

we rejoice and are glad.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,

Second Reading

1 Peter 1:3-9

'You did not see Christ, yet you love him,'

Sequence – to be announced

Gospel Acclamation

John 20:29

Alleluia, alleluia! Jesus said: 'You believe because you can see me.

Happy are those who have not seen and yet believe.' Alleluia!

Gospel

John 20:19-31

'Eight days later, Jesus came again and stood among them.'

Communion Antiphon

John 20:27

Bring your hand and feel the place of the nails, and do not be unbelieving but believing, alleluia.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Divine Mercy Sunday is celebrated on the Second Sunday of Easter, which concludes the Octave of Easter. It is originally based on the devotion to the Divine Mercy that Faustina Kowalska reported as part of her encounter with Jesus, and is associated with special promises from Jesus and indulgences issued by the Catholic Church. A person who goes to sacramental confession and receives holy communion on that day, shall obtain the total expiation of all sins and punishment.

BISHOP CHRISTOPHER 'S REQUIEM

Bishop Christopher's body will be received into the Church of the Sacred Heart, Exeter at 5pm on Thursday 4th May. Requiem Mass will take place at 12midday on Friday 5th May. Archbishop John Wilson will preside. The reception will take place at the Hotel Mercure, Southgate from 2pm . Internment of the body in the cemetery at Buckfast Abbey will take place later in the afternoon.

All parishioners are invited to attend the Requiem . If you wish to attend please let Father Jarek or Marianne know. If there are sufficient numbers wishing to attend we can look at booking a minibus. If there is anyone who would be happy to drive the minibus we can keep costs down. Please let Father Jarek know as soon as possible.

The following is a link one of our parishioners has provided to Bishop Christopher's obituary -

HOMES FOR UKRAINE

There are still many Ukrainians looking to come to the UK to seek sanctuary from the war. Saint John of God Hospitaller Services (SJOG) and Caritas Social Action Network (CSAN) are offering a matching, training and support service under the Homes for Ukraine Scheme. If you would like to know more, Caritas and SJOG are holding an online event on Wednesday 22nd March from 6-6.45 pm.

To register please follow this link: <https://forms.office.com/e/adH56azgaq> or telephone Caritas on 01364 645360

WELCOME STRANGER

This is a new publication from the Catholic Bishops Conference of England and Wales which presents the Catholic Church's response to refugees and migrants. the document places the human being at the heart of pastoral outreach, looking beyond policies and statistics to the person- each with a name, a face and a story. The document can be accessed via the website www.cbcew.org.uk

Bishop Terrance Draine asks the Catholic community to write to their MP's asking them to protect rather than punish refugees and create an effective asylum system which is just and compassionate. The Caritas Social Action Network have produced a template letter to MP's and further guidance and can be found on their website at <https://www.csan.org.uk/news/csan-statement-on-the-illegal-migration-bill>
